

Apostle Chantell L. Poole, M.Div., BCC

Apostle Chantell L. Poole, MDiv, is the founder of ‘From The Throne Ministries Worship Center’; and CEO of ‘CLE Global Ministries & Trees of Righteousness Fellowship of Churches’. She is a spiritual midwife, a certified Clinical Chaplain and a trained End-of-life Death Doula, with a Bachelor’s degree in Organizational Leadership from Eastern University and holds a Diploma in Pastoral Care & a Master of Divinity both from Palmer Theological Seminary. She recently Trademarked “The Pink Table Talk” a platform created to empower 21st Century women. In her first week of introduction on Facebook earned over one thousand members.

Her Ministries are endorsed by The Coalition of Spirit-filled Churches, an incorporated, non-profit "religious endorsing body" Ministry. Her exceptional character was recognized early by The NAACP who noted her among 100 Most Influential Women in Philadelphia in 2007. Apostle Poole’s greatest desire is to “die empty” of every assignment God has ordained for her life.
